REFORMING THE UNION'S INSTITUTIONS IN VIEW OF THE ENLARGEMENT: IS IT POSSIBLE?

Fabio SPITALERI and Stefano AMADEO

Tuesday, 21st May 2024

at 18:00 - Conference Room of the former Military Hospital of Trieste

The stabilisation of the European continent requires the completion of the Union's enlargement process. All the countries of the Western Balkans have been applying to join the European Union for some time, and three new countries (Ukraine, Georgia and Moldova) have recently joined the list of candidates. However, only a significant revision of the treaties will make it possible to open the door to these new countries. Reformation of both the EU institutions and, above all, the decision-making procedures they follow will be necessary in order to enable the EU to meet the current international challenges.
