

Invitation: Apply for Young Leaders Forum and connect with young professionals

Young Leaders Forum is looking for young leaders (aged 18-35) to participate at the Forum.

Young Leaders Forum will be held from April 26-28 on the St. Catherine Island near Rovinj, Croatia. Participants will have the opportunity to hear many interesting topics connected to business development, international relations, international business, entrepreneurship, and skill development.

The forum will bring together a limited number of participants, and participation is only available to selected young leaders through application and direct invitation.

What to expect from Young Leaders Forum?

- 20+ interesting speakers from different industries
- Rich formal and networking program
- Unique location
- Opportunities to meet colleagues and leading experts from various industries

Participation is free of charge, but participants will need to cover their own travel and accommodation expenses at the Hotel Katarina on the St. Catherine Island.

For more information and applications, please visit: <https://youngleaders.huki.hr/>

Applications are open until 31.03.2023.

The forum is organized by the Croatian Office for Creativity and Innovation in cooperation with the Embassy of the United States of America in Croatia.

We look forward to your participation!

Best regards,

Young Leaders Forum Organizing Committee
