

Transform4European Research and Innovation
T4ERI PROJECT

Roundtable organised by the University of Trieste
in collaboration with the University of Primorska

BORDERS AND MIGRATION (IN)VISIBILITY, THEN AND NOW

Aula Magna
Dipartimento di Studi Umanistici
Androna Baciocchi 4, Trieste

23rd November 2023
18:00 – 19:00

Starting from an analysis of the Italian–Slovenian border and of its past and present function, this public roundtable allows for discussion between scholars, local institutions and those who have crossed and experienced the border in their migratory journeys, in order to reflect on the (in)visibility of migrations across borders.

With the participation of:

Alessandro Monsutti (Anthropologist, Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies, Geneva)

Katja Hrobat Virloget (Anthropologist, University of Primorska)

Roberta Altin (Anthropologist, University of Trieste)

Tullia Catalan (Historian, University of Trieste)

Sandi Klun (Mayor of the border municipality of Dolina)

Rita Casseler (border witness)

Ismail Swati (border witness)

Students of the 'Archivio di Frontiera – Border's archive' Laboratory

Moderation:

Giuseppe Grimaldi (Anthropologist, University of Trieste)

Alessandro Carrieri (Historian, University of Trieste)

With the participation of voluntary associations, local stakeholders, students and citizens.

Working language(s): Italian. The abstracts will be multilingual (ITA/ ENG/SLO)

TEAMS link: <https://u.garr.it/9S5fc>

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI TRIESTE

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 101035805

